About Us

The International Center for Autism Research and Education, Inc. (Icare4autism) began its mission in 2004. The universally dedicated non-profit has locations in Manhattan, NY and Jerusalem, IS. Annual functions for the universal organization include major autism conferences and events. Each attracts 1,000's of attendees.

“Our mission is to act as a catalyst and drive research worldwide,” says Joshua Weinstein, M.B.A . and M. of Ed., Icare4autism Founder & President.

Icare4autism believes that creating these face- to-face opportunities will lead to the discovery of the causes of autism. In the search for a biologic identifier, Icare4autism connects the most elite autism researchers .

Founder, Joshua Weinstein

Joshua Weinstein, M.B.A and M. of Ed., has founded four successful non-profits: Benjamin House, Shema Kolainu- Hear Our Voices- School and Center for Children with Autism, Tishma and the International Center for Autism Research and Education (Icare4autism). He is the acting President of all these organizations.

Weinstein began creating imperative resources for individuals in the special needs community after he learned of the lack of outlets available for children with autism. Prior to this, he worked in the healthcare industry, business and in education.
